Re: Application No 09/474 677 D
Applicant : Yash Sharma

Dear Dr. Schwadron:

This has reference to my interview with you on October 18, 2006 in your office regarding sequence listing. Thanks for your advice and help. Please find the enclosed corrected sequence listing, and also the NIH web page listing Lukor as anti-HIV compound and USDA table listing NGNA as component of common food items. Also included in this package is our human clinical trials using NGNA derived from common food item Sea cucumber and related references.

These documents provide sufficient evidence of enablement and further proof of NGNA as potential natural anti - HIV compound.

In view of these evidences, the application is in good condition for allowance.

Respectfully submitted.
